Dear Friends,

What does it take to be a disciple of Jesus? A couple of weeks ago, we learned it takes discipline, a word derived from the same Latin root, disciplina, which means teaching or instruction. A new school year has just begun for many of us. What an appropriate time to act as a student, eager to learn what it takes to follow the Lord.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Today's lessons are not easy. Wisdom acknowledges that God's ways cannot be understood through human thought. Jesus, explaining what it takes to follow him, repeatedly frames the requirements as "whoever does not ... cannot be my disciple." But Paul is encouraging and positive, speaking of the conversion of someone who was once a slave, but is now a brother and partner. As we listen today, let us find hope in our mission as Christ's twenty-first-century disciples.

STEWARDSHIP: Jesus' invitation to follow Him is addressed to us. We are Catholic citizens of a wealthy, powerful nation facing many questions about its identity and role in the 21st Century. We are members of a community of faith blessed with many human and material resources yet often uncertain about how to sustain and use them. Stewardship is a disciple's response.

A REMINDER: This week the priests of the Belleville Diocese gather in annual Convocation in St. Louis with Bishop Braxton. The theme for this year's Convocation is "Building a More Intentional Presbyterate – Claiming Our Responsible Freedom as Individual Priests". Please keep us in your prayers.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How do I need to transform myself to be a true disciple? Who is part of my family?

God bless.

Fr. Chuck

Vocation Corner: "Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple." (Luke 14:27) What a challenge Jesus has issued to us to follow our call. Our discipleship is based on our acting in accord with His will for our lives. Do we ever take a moment and reflect on our "call" in life and how we are fulfilling that call? Our crosses come in varied shapes and sizes. Some of us are to fulfill ourselves in marriage; some in the single life; some in the religious life. Encourage and support each other in succeeding in carrying our individual crosses.
