

I prayed,
and prudence was given to me.
I pleaded,
and the spirit of wisdom came to me.
I preferred her to scepter and throne
and deemed riches as nothing compared with her.

Dear Friends,

Living as a disciple is a daunting task. Jesus challenges us and the way we live our lives. In today's Gospel, Jesus explains that keeping the commandments is not enough to inherit eternal life; a disciple must give what they have to the poor and follow him. The man who asked the question walked away sad. Even his disciples couldn't believe how difficult it was to get to heaven. Only then did Jesus comfort them. Though we cannot save ourselves, with God all things are possible. Let us give thanks to God today for enabling us to achieve what we cannot do ourselves.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: The author of Wisdom, having been given the spirit of wisdom, rhapsodizes on the greatness of this gift, better than riches, power, and even well-being, which are all transitory. In Hebrews we hear God's word described as a double-edged sword, ready to penetrate our very being. Jesus' words do so in the Gospel: "Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." Let us allow God's word to penetrate our hearts.

STEWARDSHIP: There will come a time in which we will be accountable before God for the use of the gifts we have received. Have you reflected on the use of your gifts lately?

A REMINDER: On Monday, we celebrate the 529th Anniversary of the Discovery of the Americas. Let us be grateful for the 'Land of the Brave and the Home of the Free.' Let us also be mindful of the continued plight of the Indigenous peoples of the Americas and learn from their unique perspective regarding the sacredness of creation and our need to protect the environment and its critical balance.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: What am I willing to leave behind in order to follow Jesus more fully?

God bless.

Fr. Chuck

Vocations Corner – "I grew up in the province of Chaco, Argentina. My parents were farmers, and our village was so rural that a priest came only once a month. At age 14, while preparing for confirmation, I was struck intensely by Jesus' words: "Peter, do you love me?" In high school, I met the Little Workers of the Sacred Hearts, who invited me to participate in their religious activities. My teenage years were normal. but through it all, the sisters gently guided me in my discernment. Although I was offered a full university scholarship, I felt something was missing. Finally, a sister asked me, "Do you have a desire to be a nun?" I answered immediately – Yes!" Sr. Rosana Ybanez, POSC; Columbia Magazine, February 2021
