Dear Friends,

Every Sunday Jesus draws us here, as a shepherd draws his flock. "My sheep hear my voice," he says in today's Gospel, "and they follow me." Jesus is the Good Shepherd. He feeds his flock, with his own Body and Blood. He loves his flock, suffering and dying for us. He provides for his flock by sending us the Holy Spirit. At home in the comforting embrace of our Good Shepherd, we join together today in thanks and praise.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: When Paul and Barnabas returned to the synagogue in Antioch, "almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord." Our turnout today may not rival theirs, but we hear the same comforting message that Jesus came to bring salvation to all. In Revelation, John describes his vision in which the Lamb shepherds people of every background to a place of life and joy. In the Gospel, Jesus tells us that he-the Good Shepherd-gives his flock eternal life. With the eagerness of the people of Antioch, let us listen to the word of the Lord.

STEWARDSHIP: Jesus calls us, as his disciples, to a new way of life: the Christian way of life--of which stewardship is part. He does not call us as nameless people in a faceless crowd. He calls us individually, by name. Each one of us -- clergy, religious, lay person; married, single; adult, child has a personal vocation. God intends each one of us to play a unique role in carrying out the divine plan. The challenge, then, is to understand our role--our vocation and to respond generously to this call from God. Christian vocation entails the practice of stewardship. In addition, Christ calls each of us to be stewards of our personal vocations, which we receive from God.

A REMINDER: We extend to all the Mothers of the two parishes our gratitude on this Mother's Day weekend. We also extend out "thanks" to all who worked and supported the Holy Name Breakfast. The image of the Good Shepherd bringing the lost sheep back to the fold is a touching reminder to us all that no one is to be lost and all are to be sought.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How can I be the kind of person to shepherd someone else?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

The 2022 Catholic Service and Ministry Appeal

Go and do likewise... - Luke 10:37

Your contribution to The Catholic Service and Ministry Appeal enables the Office of Faith Formation to impact the lives of over 9,500 students at 25 Catholic grade schools, three Catholic high schools and in PSR (Parish School of Religion) classes throughout our Belleville Diocese. If you haven't already done so, we prayerfully ask you to consider making a gift to The 2022 Appeal today...no amount is too large or too small! Thank you.

Vocations Corner - Today is World Day of Prayer for Vocations. The purpose of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publically fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), to the Religious life in all its forms (male and female, contemplative and apostolic), to societies of apostolic life, to secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life, in the particular sense of mission "ad gentes". (From the USCCB website)

We also celebrate and congratulate all our Mothers today in their acceptance of this very special call in life. Blessings on them all!
