Dear Friends,

"Love one another," Jesus tells his disciples. No, Jesus commands his disciples. This is how everyone will know that they are his disciples. As we gather here today, we ask ourselves if we can be recognized by our love. Do we show the love we have for one another in what we do and say? Do we love one another as much as Jesus loves us? May the God of love bless us in the challenge to love each other.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: The first reading may read like a travelogue of the ancient Gentile world, but in between all the place names we hear the care Paul and Barnabas took in calling disciples and building up the early church. They take to heart Jesus' command to his disciples in the Gospel: love one another. Paralleling the way the region and the church are being remade through the work of Paul and Barnabas is John's vision of God creating a new heaven and earth, uniting the two in this new world. Listening to God's word, let us appreciate how God's grace makes all things new.

STEWARDSHIP: As members of the Church, Jesus calls us to be disciples. A mature disciple is one who: has a deep sense of identity and destiny; has the ability to love, whatever the cost, and to be loved, whatever the vulnerability; and exercises Christian Stewardship. Disciples can name their gifts, take ownership for them; and accept responsibility for what God has given us and the circumstances of our times.

A REMINDER: As we enter the final weeks of the school year, we extend congratulations to all the graduates from the various levels of their educational advancement and ask the Lord to keep them safe over the Summer break.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How can I open the door of faith to someone else?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

The 2022 Catholic Service and Ministry Appeal

Go and do likewise... - Luke 10:37

Your contribution to The Catholic Service and Ministry Appeal enables the Office of Faith Formation to impact the lives of over 9,500 students at 25 Catholic grade schools, three Catholic high schools and in PSR (Parish School of Religion) classes throughout our Belleville Diocese. If you haven't already done so, we prayerfully ask you to consider making a gift to The 2022 Appeal today...no amount is too large or too small! Thank you.

Vocations Corner - "There was never a dull moment growing up with seven siblings. Little did I know that this experience would prepare me well for Benedictine life, a life of stability in community lived in the enclosure of the monastery. Would I have become a monk if my grandmother had not prayed that one of her grandsons would become a priest; if my dad had not told me, "It doesn't hurt to give God the first option"; Nothing is more beautiful than encountering Christ. I didn't lose my family when I entered the monastery; I joined a family much larger than 10. I belong to God's family."
