Dear Friends,

We come today to listen to God's word and celebrate the Eucharist. Gathered together in this place, we look around and see our neighbors. Many of them are people much like us. The neighbor in today's Gospel-the good Samaritan-is not. Samaritans were seen as outcasts by the Jewish people who frequented the road from Jerusalem to Jericho. Yet it was this foreigner, this outsider, this stranger, who is the true neighbor to the Jewish victim. May hearing this parable expand our understanding of "neighbor" as it moves our hearts to reach out to those not like us.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Moses speaks to a sinful people in the first reading, pleading with them to keep the LORD's commandments as they repent with their whole heart and soul. In the Gospel, a scholar of the law-of all God's commandments-goes one step further, asking Jesus what he must do to inherit eternal life. Realizing that loving one's neighbor is at the heart of the answer, he asks Jesus who his neighbor is. It is in this context that Jesus tells the parable of the Good Samaritan, asking the questioner who was the true neighbor. May today's readings inspire us to accept the challenge to treat all others-friends or strangers-as worthy of our love.

STEWARDSHIP: In the parable of the Good Samaritan, we have an example of stewardship of personal resources used to serve the good of another. Jesus invites us to see everyone in our community, our city, our country, in the world as our neighbor. Stewardship calls on us to put our gifts - our very selves - at the service of others.

A REMINDER: Please welcome, again, Father Benny George Ayathupadam, Parochial Vicar at Mt. Vernon and in residence at St. Barbara, Scheller, to the Masses this weekend as I attend the Illinois State Council Knights of Columbus Mid-Summer Organizational meeting in Springfield.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How do I rationalize passing by someone in need? What will spur me to stop and help instead?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

We salute and pray for all veterans, and especially for these and all who are currently serving our country:

Sara Asuncion Nathan Smith
Phillip Hilmes Clarence "Kennedy" Vogt

Vocations Corner: "When I was 8, I penned a rhyme that listed 12 things I liked. Reading it as an adult, I was delighted that "people" had made the list - and disappointed that "ice cream" had not. The verse ended, "I like God the best." Even then, the Lord was inviting me to be exclusively his own. I was grateful to my family for giving me the gift of faith. After graduating from college, I served the Church full time for 11 years. I thought I had found my mission to active ministry..." But gradually, in the quiet intimacy of adoring Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament, he revealed the difference between doing God's work and fulfilling his will. Gently, he invited me to embrace a contemplative vocation. Sr. John Mark Maria of St. Peter the Apostle; Poor Clares of Perpetual Adoration, Tonopab, AZ. Columbia Dec. 2019
