

When you pray, say FATHER
 hallowed be your name
YOUR KINGDOM COME

Give us each day
 our daily bread

Forgive us
 our sins
 for we ourselves forgive all

in debt to us
 and do not put us to the final test

AMEN

Dear Friends,

As God's children, we are all invited to ask God for whatever we need, from our daily bread to forgiveness for our trespasses. We are reminded of this every time we pray the Lord's Prayer, but today's readings speak to this as well. Gathered here today to listen to God's word and share in the Eucharist, let us be consoled in the knowledge that there is no limit to the generosity of a God who willingly sent the Son to suffer and die for us.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Abraham fears he's driving the LORD to exhaustion with his pleas on behalf of possible innocents in the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, but in so doing he discovers just how inexhaustible God's mercy truly is. We sing together in the responsorial psalm that when we call for help, our merciful God answers us. Indeed, Jesus tells his disciples, when they pray they should specifically ask the Father for help and mercy. Let today's selections from scripture reassure us of God's infinite mercy.

STEWARDSHIP: There is a tremendous stewardship message in the Lord's Prayer: Give us each day our daily bread. We recognize God as Giver of all gifts and surrender our control over our possessions to Him. May the Holy Spirit, Whose gracious action conforms us to Jesus Christ and to the Church, enlighten us and help us to renew our commitment as the Lord's disciples and as stewards of his bountiful gifts.

A REMINDER: Jesus taught us many things through his teaching, but the most inspiring undoubtedly is to call his Father, our Father. This also leads to another astonishing conclusion: that Jesus is our brother, our friend, our confidant.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: When have I failed to be generous with what I have or been inhospitable to those I meet? What would lead me to be generous and hospitable?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Vocations Corner: "Growing up, I had steadfast examples of always putting family and faith first. My father suggested that perhaps one day I would become a priest. At 15, I met the Oblates of the Virgin Mary at their parish near my home in Long Beach, Calif. I was attracted to their passion for preaching God's mercy and making the sacraments available around the clock. I maintained spiritual direction through the remainder of high school and a university program in computer science. Finally, only 10 days after my younger sister joined a Dominican congregation, I entered the seminary in Boston. I had embarked on an adventure that would take me to three continents on the path to ministry as an Oblate priest, just like those who had captivated me at 15 - and I love it!"
Fr. Paul M. Nguyen, O.M.V., Oblates of the Virgin Mary, Alton IL; Columbia Feb. 2019, pg 34

Saint Quote of the Week:

"If you want God to know that you are hungry, know that another is hungry. If you hope for mercy, show mercy. If you look for kindness, show kindness. If you want to receive, give. If you ask for yourself what you deny to others, your asking is a mockery."
