Dear Friends,

The Holy Spirit draws us here today to listen to God's living word, to receive the Lord in the Eucharist, and to give praise and thanks to God. During the week, many of us work hard to make our lives comfortable, aiming for a promotion or raise, earning enough to afford the nicest things, putting money away for an easy retirement. Today's readings will give us the bit of shock we need to put those parts of our life in perspective. "Vanity of vanities!" cries the first reading's narrator, ridiculing the idea that we have total control over the rest of our lives. May we reorient ourselves toward what really matters.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Today's readings are a wonderful antidote to our culture's attitude that the accumulation of material wealth should be everyone's goal. "Vanity of vanities," this notion is, for what guarantee is there that you will ever be able to enjoy all the wealth you worked for? Greed is idolatry, Paul says in the next reading; instead seek what is above. After all, Jesus points out in the Gospel, the rich man is a fool for thinking he can control the rest of his life through wealth. May today's readings offer a strong argument against the worship of material possessions.

STEWARDSHIP: Today's readings are a lesson in priorities. Unless God is the first priority in our life, all we do we do in vain. Mature disciples make a conscious, firm decision, carried out in action, to be followers of Jesus Christ no matter the cost to themselves. Beginning in conversion, change of mind and heart, this commitment is expressed not in a single action, nor even in a number of actions over a period of time, but in an entire way of life. It means committing one's very self to the Lord. This is the foundation of Stewardship.

A REMINDER: The Old Testament is composed of various kinds of writing: the Law, the Prophets, the Historical books and Wisdom literature. It is the Wisdom literature that can provoke the deepest thoughts we have about faith and God and can enhance our understanding as humanly possible.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: Where do I find my wealth? How do I regard and handle my material wealth?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Vocations Corner: "Growing up, I had a lot of misconceptions about nuns. Primarily, I assumed women became nuns only if they couldn't find a boyfriend. Why else would a woman give up the joys – marriage and family – as celibate priests, with none of the "superpowers"? Then, in college, I actually met nuns and I was stunned. They were beautiful! And smart! And had personalities! I opened the door of my heart. Not much- just a crack. But it was a crack big enough for Jesus to get his toe in and open it a lot wider. I often recalled the words of my spiritual director: "We all have a natural call to marriage, but some of us have a supernatural call to celibacy."

Saint Quotes of the Week: St. John Vianney

"Only after the Last Judgment will Mary get rest; from now until then, she is much too busy with her children."

"If people would do for God what they do for the world, what a great number of Christians would go to heaven."
