Dear Friends,

The bright star in the sky drew the magi from their distant kingdom to see the newborn King and offer him their treasures. We were drawn here today by our King, Christ the Lord, and we offer Him our treasure our hearts, our hopes, our lives. May we be that bright star for others, drawing our families, friends, and neighbors to Him, so that they too may find the treasure we know in the Lord.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Isaiah's excitement bubbles over as he describes how the glory of the Lord will attract pilgrims to Jerusalem from all over the world. Paul preaches that all people Gentiles as well are equal partners in this new faith, co-heirs to the kingdom. In the Gospel, we hear the story of the magi, journeying to Bethlehem to offer their gifts to the newborn king. May God's word inspire us as we make our own journeys to the new Jerusalem.

STEWARDSHIP: Opening their coffers was part of the prayer of the Magi. Becoming a disciple of Jesus Christ has its beginning in baptism, the sacrament of faith. Faith joins individuals and the community of Jesus' followers in intimacy with their Lord and leads them to live as His disciples. Stewardship is what we do after we say we believe. How often do we open our coffers to those around us who are in need?

A REMINDER: Known as "Little Christmas" in the Eastern Rite church and celebrated even more festively than we do Christmas, it is a reminder that Jesus is a "Light to the Nations" and to be adorned by all peoples. Let us always "Follow His Star."

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: What happened in my life in 2022 that I treasure in my heart? How do I recognize God's role in these blessings?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Vocations Corner:

What a wonderful Gospel account of the Magi traveling to meet the Lord. They followed the star – their “call” – to come and offer their gifts to the Lord. But the question arises as to how the Magi noticed a star at night and no one else really did. Perhaps we need to embrace the “night”, the stillness, to “see and hear” our call. How are we doing in living our call to Holiness – our vocation as a man, a woman or a child; married or single; priesthood or religious – of being called to something beyond ourselves?
