Dear Friends,

Last Sunday, on the feast of the Epiphany, we heard the familiar story of the magi, who, directed by the star to Bethlehem, find the baby Jesus. Today we hear of the first disciples, who, directed by John the Baptist, encounter the adult Jesus. That initial encounter changes the entire course of their lives, for, as Andrew insists to his brother Simon, "We have found the Messiah." May our encounter with the Lord, here and elsewhere, influence the way we live our lives as well.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: God calls to us in unexpected ways. For young Samuel, it was his whispered name he heard in the night. Jesus called Saul when he was on his way to persecute Christians in Damascus. Today we hear him, as Paul, speak of our bodies as being temples of the Holy Spirit. In the Gospel, we hear Jesus call two disciples after they had been standing around talking with John the Baptist. As we hear God's word proclaimed, let us listen for what God is saying to us today.

STEWARDSHIP Today we hear Samuel respond eagerly, "Here I am!" each time the Lord calls him. May we, too, be listening for the call of God in our lives and be ready to say like Samuel, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

A REMINDER: Normally the Sunday following the Epiphany is the Baptism of the Lord. But due to how the liturgical celebrations fall during a calendar year, the Baptism of the Lord was celebrated this past Monday and we have now entered into Ordinary Time in the Church's liturgical cycle.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: What will I do during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity to be one with other Christians?

God bless,

Fr. Chuck
