Dear Friends,

As we draw close to Holy Week, we hear Jesus talk about his approaching death. Yet his message to his disciples is not so much about his death as it is about eternal life. As Christians, we know that as difficult as death is, our true focus, our true hope is in eternal life, trusting that our Lord is our source of eternal salvation. During this final week before Holy Week, let us keep in mind that just as our Lenten journey will not end with Good Friday, but with Easter, so too does our own life's journey end not in death but in new life.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Jeremiah looked forward to the day when God's covenant with humanity would be internalized in us, when it would be imprinted on our hearts. To prepare our hearts for keeping the covenant, we pray that God will create clean hearts in us. Especially during Lent, our longing for reconciliation and forgiveness can help to prepare our hearts. In the Gospel, Jesus speaks from the heart, questioning why he would ask God to save him from suffering and death when that was the purpose in the first place. May we let God's word penetrate our hearts as well.

STEWARDSHIP: When Jesus asked his disciples to follow Him, He asked them to give up all they had and leave their families to be disciples. Today, Jesus is not asking us to give up all we possess, but He does ask us to offer what we possess to our brothers and sisters. Putting God first in all areas of our life, enables us to truly be God's servants. Becoming disciples of Jesus Christ leads naturally to the practice of stewardship.

A REMINDER: On the Fifth Sunday of Lent the Church celebrates the Third Scrutiny with the Elect. The scrutinies are intended to complete the call to conversion of the Elect. At St. Anthony on Sunday, Bella Tucker, will be receiving the Rite and also be given a copy of the Lord's Prayer, as she continues her journey toward the Easter Vigil.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: What part of myself that I've become attached to in a self-centered way can "die" so that I will clear more space in my heart and my schedule for love of neighbor?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Special Intentions

If you have anyone who needs to be added or removed from this list, please contact the Parish Office.

Vocations Corner:

On Tuesday of this week, we celebrate the feast of St. Joseph. "When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him." (Matt 1:24) "It was grace that moved Joseph to embrace his vocation as the guardian of Israel's Messiah. It's the same grace that empowers us to accept God's call and wisdom for our lives. Joseph's yes in faith changed the world. God also has a plan for your life. You don't know where your yes might lead and how God might use it. Ask Joseph to help. Then, like Joseph, go out in faith to be a "doer of the word" (James 1:2d2d)." (The Word Among Us)
