Dear Friends,

As summer transitions to fall, farmers' thoughts turn toward the coming harvest. Speaking of harvesting, in the second reading Saint James declares that those who cultivate peace will sow the fruit of righteousness. Besides the traditional fall harvest of apples and pumpkins, may we all also savor the fruit of righteousness that is, of moral goodness and justice which in turn brings peace to our world, our nation, and our communities. Let us sing and praise the God who makes all this possible.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Each of today's readings show the terrible consequences of self-centeredness. Confronted by a just person, the selfish lawbreakers in the first reading plan to torture and kill him. James warns his readers that jealousy and selfishness bring conflict and even war. Jesus contrasts the contentiousness of the disciples, who were arguing about which of them were the greatest, with the innocence of a child, who does not know ambition. Let us note the self-centered tendencies in our own character and look for the antidote in today's readings.

STEWARDSHIP: To serve is to reign. This teaching was exemplified by Jesus' life and death. Christ is the ultimate steward, sacrificing everything, even His life for us. How are we following His example of service?

A REMINDER: Bishop McGovern will be having a Farm Blessing in Clinton County on Tuesday, September 24 at the Four Beck Dairy in Bartleso from 9:30-10:30am. Farmers are welcome to bring farm implements and animals for the blessing.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: When have I asked wrongly, whether for material things or status? Where has that left me?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck
