National Vocation Awareness Week (NVAW) is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these vocations. Dear Friends,

Jesus told his disciples, "Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted." Today we mourn all those who have died, especially those we love, those who are close to us. But we indeed are comforted: by our memories of them, by sharing our grief with our loved ones, and by our faith, which tells us that death is not the end. Their souls are in the arms of God, forever comforted from the suffering and hardships they faced in life. Our faith in the Resurrection allows us to be pilgrims of hope in this life, placing our trust in God's love and mercy.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Over thousands of years, God's word has given comfort and hope to those who mourn. May our faith in a loving and merciful God, whom we hear portrayed in today's readings, dispel our doubts and calm our fears of death. May our faith in the Resurrection and in the redemption Jesus won for us assure us of the promise of eternal life in the kingdom. May the faith we share and the act of sharing it with each other console us in our grief.

STEWARDSHIP: St. Paul gives a powerful Stewardship message: None of us lives as his own master and none of us dies as his own master. While we live we are responsible to the Lord and when we die we die as His servants. Both in life and in death we are the Lord's. (Rom 14, 7f) Every one of us will have to give an account of himself before God.

A REMINDER: This weekend on Sunday, we are holding our Annual Memorial Masses at both parishes, to remember our parishioners who were called forth from our midst this past year and who now rest in the peace of Christ. May their souls know the Light of the Resurrection and the Glory of Heaven.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: Who do I remember in a special way today? Throughout this coming week, can I commit to unite myself with them in prayer?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Pro-Life Corner:

"Palliative care and hospice are precious and crucial instruments in the care of patients with serious and complex chronic or terminal illnesses, and they help provide comfort to both the patients and their families. While palliative care cannot entirely eradicate suffering from people's lives, it provides an authentic expression of human and Christian care – allowing us to 'remain' at the side of a suffering person, as the Blessed Mother and the beloved disciple remained at the foot of the Cross...The path of accompaniment until the moment of death must remain open, with appropriate care for body and soul customized to the personal needs of the patient."
