Dear Friends,

We set every Sunday aside to worship the Lord, but today we also remember the saints. These men and women served the Lord during their time on earth and continue to give witness to the Lord by the example of their lives. During this month at the end of autumn, when we give thanks for the abundance of the harvest for another year, we also give thanks to God, whose harvest of souls in heaven we recognize in all the saints. May we one day join them and reap the heavenly reward that our Lord has won for us.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: On the Solemnity of All Saints, our readings look ahead to the day when we hope to join God and all the saints in the heavenly kingdom. What will that day look like? Will we be part of a great multitude standing before the throne of the Lamb? What or whom will we see in the face of God? Will we each be like God? Jesus, who knew well the blessings of heaven, promised his disciples that those who here on earth are poor in spirit, or mournful, or clean of heart, or are persecuted, will one day see that reward. Let us treasure this sweet hope as we listen to God's word.

STEWARDSHIP: Today is a day to reflect on the faithful Stewardship of all those how have gone before us. The spirit of Stewardship is based upon our belief that God is the Creator an Owner of all things. We are not only caretakers of the possessions He has entrusted to us on earth, but also accountable to Him in the very way we live out our lives. Faithful stewards follow the two great commandments: Love God, and love your neighbor as yourself.

A REMINDER: As we celebrate All Saints Day this Sunday, we will also be remembering our deceased parishioners who have died since last year at both our respective Sunday Masses (6 at St. Augustine and 7 at St. Anthony). May their souls rest in the peace of heavenly joy and may their memories always be a blessing to their family.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How can I show the unconditional love of a saint in a way that I have been reluctant to in the past?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Pro-Life Corner:

Palliative Care Awareness Month

November is Palliative Care Awareness Month. During this month, our Respect Life Corner will highlight end-of-life issues so that we accompany people with dignity and compassion. Palliative care relieves the pain, symptoms, and stress of a serious illness while working with primary, curative care. Anyone can receive palliative care for any duration, usually in the form of pain management, and is usually covered by insurance. Palliative care supports the Catholic Church's teaching that those whose lives are diminished or weakened deserve special respect. Sick or handicapped persons should be helped to lead lives as normal as possible (CCC 2276).
