Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable of a king who invites anyone and everyone to a huge feast he is giving for the wedding of his son. Similarly, every Sunday we all are invited to a wonderful feast: the Eucharistic Feast, the wedding feast of the Lamb. We accept the Lord's invitation to partake in his sacrificial meal, a foretaste of the heavenly banquet we hope to attend one day. Let us give thanks and praise to our God, who welcomes us to the feast.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Today's readings are sure to whet our appetites. Isaiah speaks of "juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines." In the psalm, God spreads a table before us. Jesus' parable features a wedding feast given by a king. Even Paul mentions that at times he has been well fed and lived in abundance. All this prepares us, as always, for the Eucharistic meal we will share, where we will partake of Christ's own Body and Blood.

STEWARDSHIP: When we, as stewards, are joined in mind and heart with our God, and when we apply ourselves to temporal affairs, our work, in a way, is a continuation of the labor of Jesus Christ Himself, drawing from His strength and redemptive power.

A REMINDER: On this Columbus Day weekend, let us be grateful for the beautiful land we have in America and learn from the native first inhabitants: a deep respect for all our natural resources. I will be in St. Louis this coming week with the Priests of the Belleville diocese as we meet in our annual Convocation with the Bishop and discuss our diocesan future needs. This year we are meeting at the Augustine Institute in Florissant, MO.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: What will I do this week to weave a wedding garment of repentance, mercy, and love for the Lord's feast? What do I need to repent of? Who needs my mercy? How can I show love?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

What a joy it is to see them receive the sacraments of Reconciliation and the Eucharist! It is truly a privilege to serve those suffering in silence to find hope, healing, and peace through Jesus Christ. If you or someone you know is suffering from the hidden wound of abortion, call/text 314-778-0628 or email us hopehealing@archstl.org.
