Dear Friends,

Out of love, God created us and the entire world we live in. Out of love, God sent the Son who died for us to save us from our sins. Out of love, God sent the Holy Spirit to remain with us always. No wonder John wrote quite simply that God is love. Because we were created, redeemed, and made holy as acts of love, we are called to love in return. Specifically, Jesus teaches us today that the greatest commandment is to love God and love our neighbor. May our hearts expand with love as we join with our neighbor to worship God.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: We are reminded in today's Gospel of the two commandments that Jesus identifies as the greatest. Above every other law, order, or command, we are called to do two things: love God and love our neighbor. The first reading gives practical applications of this command. They reflect an era from many centuries ago, but we can still appreciate them today. May our love for God and neighbor grow and flourish in our hearts, our souls, and our minds, motivating us to show that love here and out in the world.

STEWARDSHIP: In Exodus, God exhorts the community of faith to show compassion to those who are most in need. Jesus tells the people of God, formed by the New Covenant, to love God and to place themselves at the service of the entire human community by loving neighbor as self. Each member of the Church shares in responsibility for its mission; each is called to practice stewardship.

A REMINDER: On Sunday at St. Augustine, we will be inducting three new Altar Servers. We congratulate them and welcome into the "Ministry" of serving our parish. Sometimes it make sense to just ask ourselves, "What is the greatest thing in my life?" The answer to that question will say a great deal about ourselves and where we stand with God.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How can I give of myself this week and to whom?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Pro-Life Corner:

Eternal Father, Source of all mercy and love, out of love for us you sent your Son, and willed that blood and water flow from his side to cleanse us of sin and restore lost innocence. Hear the cry of each woman who mourns the loss of her child to abortion. Forgive her sin, restore her to your grace, and still the terror of her heart with a peace beyond all understanding. Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of all tenderness and our Mother, strengthen her faith in you. Give her the consolation to believe that her child is now living in the Lord. We ask this through Christ our Lord, who conquered sin and death, and who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
