Dear Friends,

Not only on the first two days of this month do we honor the saints and commemorate the faithful departed on the feasts of All Saints and All Souls, but during the entire month of November we remember those who have departed from this world. Today we hear Saint Paul write that if we believe in the resurrection of our Lord, surely God, through Jesus, will bring all those who died in Christ to the heavenly kingdom as well. May that be our hope and our consolation as we cherish our memories of our loved ones.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Every Sunday we are invited to the banquet of the Lord, where we receive Christ in the Eucharist. Are we prepared to receive this spiritual food? The foolish bridesmaids in the Gospel were unprepared and so were unable to join the wise bridesmaids and the bridegroom at the feast. The wisdom they lacked is extolled in the first reading, whose author asserts that wisdom is available to all who seek it. As we listen to today's readings, let us pray for the grace to seek and use the wisdom God gives us to prepare ourselves for the heavenly banquet.

STEWARDSHIP: Today's parable of the ten bridesmaids reminds us that each of us is called to a stewardship of time. This should include setting aside periods for family prayer, for the reading of Scripture, for visits to the Blessed Sacrament, and for attendance at Mass during the week whenever this is possible. The steward must be ready to greet the master at a time of the master's choosing.

A REMINDER: This Sunday at the 9:30am Mass in St. Anthony, we will be remembering twelve deceased Knights of Columbus members of Breese Council 2869 who have died this past fraternal year. May they rest from their labors and may their good works go before them. "Tempest Fugit, Memento Mori" – "Time flies, remember death."

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: What can I do this week to further prepare for the coming of the kingdom?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Pro-Life Corner:

Illinois legalized physician-assisted suicide this year, which goes directly against the Catholic Church's teaching that everyone is deserving of dignity, love, and care through every stage of life. Our response to suffering or despair is accompaniment with compassion, not the suggestion that some lives are not worthwhile.
