

One day a farmer went out sowing. Part of the seed fell on a footpath where birds picked it up. Part of the seed fell on rocky ground. Again, part of it fell among thorns which grew up and choked it. Part of it, finally, landed on good soil and yielded grain at a hundred fold. Let everyone heed what he hears!

The seed is the Word of God and Christ is the sower.

Dear Friends,

How appropriate that in the middle of summer we hear readings from scripture that speak of the fruitful earth. Looking around outside we likely see the lush green foliage and thriving fields. Trees and grass, plants and flowers, corn and soybeans are nourished by the summer rain and sun. When we gather together for our weekly liturgy our faith is nourished by the Lord through word and sacrament. Let us pray that we may be a rich soil for the word of God to take root in, come to fruition, and be productive.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Isaiah's poetry and Jesus' parable tell in complementary ways the power of God's word. Isaiah extols its fruitfulness, the Lord promising that it will flower just as the fertile earth does when watered by rain or snow, Jesus tells of the sower, whose indiscriminate scattering of the word of the kingdom leads to different outcomes depending on where it lands. May we listen attentively today, soaking up God's word so that it may bear fruit in us.

STEWARDSHIP: Stewardship plays an important role in the lives of believers. We must be stewards of our personal vocations. God wants us to cherish and serve a broad range of interests and concerns: respect for human life, shielding life from threat and assault, doing everything that can be done to enhance this gift and make life flourish; joyful appreciation for the God-given beauty and wonder of nature; protection and preservation of the environment, which would be the stewardship of ecological concern; and development of this world through labor, the trades and professions, the arts and sciences.

A REMINDER: Please keep our three newly ordained priests: Fathers Nick Fleming, Carl Schrage and Joel Seipp in your prayers as they begin their priestly ministry in their first pastoral assignments.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How can I be more receptive to God's word, like rich soil? What specific action can I accomplish this week to bear fruit?

God bless.

Fr. Chuck

A Prayer for Our New Bishop

O God, eternal shepherd of the faithful, who tend your Church in countless ways and rule over her in love, grant, we pray, that Michael, your servant, whom you have set over your people, may preside in the place of Christ over the flock whose shepherd he is, and be faithful as a teacher of doctrine, a Priest of sacred worship and as one who serves them by governing. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
