Dear Friends,

"Seek the LORD while he may be found, call him while he is near," Isaiah counsels us in the first words from today's first reading. We come together today to seek the Lord in word and sacrament, knowing that he can be found in scripture, in the Eucharist, and in each other. We call to him now, lifting our voices in song and prayer, aware of his closeness as we are gathered two or more in his name.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Today we hear the parable of the landowner who hires workers for his vineyard throughout the day, some at sunrise, some just before evening. We are those workers. We are called to follow Christ into the fields and make disciples of all nations. We may have been called at an early age, in middle age, or when we are old. But as Christians we are all called to this mission. To use the words of Paul and Isaiah, may we magnify Christ in our bodies as we call upon the Lord in our midst.

STEWARDSHIP: Being a steward means living with trust in God's generosity and a responsible tending of that which God has entrusted to us. It also means the fair, just, and righteous sharing of resources with others.

A REMINDER: In 2020, the Church celebrates Catechetical Sunday on September 20, 2020, under the theme of "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you." We will formally commission our catechists from our two parishes for ministry to our Parish Partnership. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each baptized person plays in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for us all to rededicate ourselves to this mission as a community of faith.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How can I magnify Christ in myself? How can I imitate God's generosity?

God bless.

Fr. Chuck

Vocation Corner: As a young adult, I practiced mixed martial arts and worked in the film industry. I was a non-practicing Catholic, and after finding a rosary that I had carried around for a number of years, I began contemplating why I had always considered myself Catholic yet neglected my faith. When I decided, by the grace of God, to pray that rosary, I realized that my love of material comforts was rooted in my desire for the infinite and that I would never be fully satisfied without God. I began attending daily Mass ....entered seminary..and now a happily ordained priest. To those discerning, I simply say, "Live every day as though you are being called for greatness."
