Dear Friends,

We are invited to a feast today. We gather around the table of the Lord, summoned by the Holy Spirit to share in this Eucharistic meal with family, friends, and neighbors, fellow pilgrims on the journey. May this feast nourish and sustain us as we go forth in joy to continue building the kingdom in our little corner of the world and beyond.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Last week we heard about vineyards and those who work them. Today the readings speak of feasts and those who are invited. Good news! Everyone is invited to these feasts, at which, to use Saint Paul's words, "God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus." As we listen to today's readings, let us bring to mind all that God has provided for us.

STEWARDSHIP: When we, as stewards, are joined in mind and heart with our God, and when we apply ourselves to temporal affairs, our work, in a way, is a continuation of the labor of Jesus Christ Himself, drawing from His strength and redemptive power.

A REMINDER: On this Columbus Day weekend, let us be grateful for our Country and work together to establish a mutual respect for one another.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: What can I do this week to put on Christ, to pass along God's generosity to others?

God bless.

Fr. Chuck

One Sunday for the Whole World! On World Mission Sunday, Oct. 18, Pope Francis reminds us of our baptismal call—to respond as missionaries, saying, "Here I Am, Send Me." We respond to that call through our prayers and personal sacrifices for our brothers and sisters in the Missions in places like Uganda where people face food uncertainty and violence, in the Philippines where local clergy face martyrdom, in Oceania where people's livelihoods are threatened by climate change and in remote regions of Latin America where people are hearing the Gospel for the first time. Respond on World Mission Sunday by supporting the priests, religious Sisters and Brothers and lay catechists who provide loving service to those most in need. Thank you for your support.

St. Augustine News. . .

His Spirit

Vocation Corner: "After graduating from college, I moved to Mississippi to begin a career as a sports journalist. I then got involved in my local parish where I was asked to join the Knights of Columbus. I was blown away by the dedication of these men to their faith and the Church, and it made me think about what really matters in life. One day at Mass, I felt ... a powerful call to bring others to Christ and the Church. Nurtured by the encouragement of a good pastor and by the example of faithful parishioners, I entered the seminary. We are all called to holiness, and when that holiness is lived out, vocations result."
