Dear Friends,

How are we using what has been entrusted to us? Today Jesus tells the parable of the talents. Two of the servants use them to make more; the third buries his in the ground. Are we using our talents as well as we could? As we celebrate the Eucharist today, let us consider how we use our God-given talents and how we could use them more beneficially.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: In the reading from Proverbs, a man finds a trustworthy and praiseworthy partner, one whose value is "beyond pearls." In the Gospel, another man finds trustworthy and praiseworthy servants, ones worthy of handling all his possessions. We would do well to look at ourselves. Does our spouse or close family member consider us trustworthy and praiseworthy? How about our employer? How about God? As we listen to these readings, let us consider how we can become more trustworthy and praiseworthy in the eyes of those whose perspective we value.

STEWARDSHIP: The silver pieces of this story stand for a great deal besides money. All temporal and spiritual goods are created by and come from God. That is true of everything human beings have: spiritual gifts like faith, hope, and love; talents of body and brain; cherished relationships with family and friends; material goods; the achievements of human genius and skill; the world itself. One day God will require an accounting of the use each person has made of the particular portion of these goods entrusted to him or her. Each will be measured by the standard of his or her individual vocation.

A REMINDER: I had hoped that we would be able to be back in our two Churches for Masses by November. However, the continued and even increased health risks that Covid-19 is presenting causes me to postpone that decision. I realize that there are many who are not in favor of the continued use of the gyms for Mass, but I must, as the one who is most responsible for the well-being and welfare of the parishioners and visitors, make the difficult decision to remain in the gyms for the time being. I have also decided that the parish halls cannot be rented out during this pandemic time.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: Do I have a gift that maybe I've kept to myself out of fear or apprehension that I could develop and share?

God bless.

Fr. Chuck

Our special collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) will take place on Nov. 21/22. Forty million people in the United States live in poverty, including many in our diocese. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to bring positive change to their communities. 25% of the collection stays in our diocese to fund local community and economic development projects in economically challenged areas. Richland County CEO, one of our local CCHD grant recipients, teaches youth the skills needed to start their own local businesses and to build a healthy local economy. Schools and PSRs in our diocese also received grants totaling $3,096 for Catholic Social Teaching and poverty education. The remaining amount of the collection goes to the CCHD national office to fund large grants throughout the nation. This year, over $135,000 in national funding was given to groups in our diocese to create long lasting economic and community improvements. Please use the special envelope provided with your monthly envelopes or in your 2020 boxed contribution envelope set to offer your support.

Vocation Corner: – I was stationed overseas in the Navy when a chaplain asked me “Have you ever considered becoming a priest?” My first response was, “Father, did you not just hear my confessions? I’m not cut out to be a priest.” Later, I realized that God does not call those who are worthy; he makes worthy those who are called. I was able to respond to the call with help from a Knights of Columbus seminarian scholarship for prospective military chaplains. When sailors and Marines see a Navy chaplain, with the cross on his uniform, they become aware of the presence of Christ. Fewer than 200 priests now serve the 1.8 million Catholics in the U.S. armed services. God is calling men to the priesthood and military chaplaincy. Like my confessor, we can all help plant the seed simply by asking the question.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

- LEARN about those living in poverty.
- ACT and spread the word about poverty by sharing this flier.
- CONNECT with the work of CCHD by supporting the collection.
- PRAY for those who benefit from this collection.

Pregnant women and struggling families with young children require assistance with their material and spiritual needs, regardless of their background. For low-income Hispanic women, this is especially true, because linguistic and cultural differences pose unique challenges for pregnancy volunteers and pastoral ministers.

In the Dioceses of Yakima and Spokane in central and eastern Washington, for example, your generosity to the Catholic Campaign for Human Development helps a group called PREPARES en español to minister to large and vibrant Hispanic communities. By training Spanish-speaking and bilingual volunteers and coordinators, and through developing Spanish-language materials, PREPARES en español offers support groups, family companions, and parent/child learning and playgroups that not only assist vulnerable families but do so in a context of respect for the unique cultural needs of Hispanic families. With your contributions, Spanish-speaking families are strengthened and nourished at the parish level in these dioceses.

To learn more about the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, visit www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) allocates funds to community projects that promote the mission and vision of CCHD while adhering to the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church.
