Dear Friends,

We have responded to the call of the Lord by gathering together in this holy place to worship God, to listen to the Word, and to share in the Eucharist. When we leave, we are asked to go forth as changed persons, nourished by the Lord so that we can witness to our faith outside these four walls. In today's Gospel, Jesus sent the disciples out to carry on his mission, empowering them with his authority. In baptism, we have been empowered by Christ to carry on his mission as well. May today's celebration inspire us to renew our commitment to the Christian mission.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: From Amos to the twelve apostles, God calls people of faith to serve others. Amos, a shepherd and horticulturist, was called to prophesy to Israel instead. Saint Paul was called to bring Christ's message to Gentiles all around the world. The Twelve were sent by Jesus in pairs to heal the sick and drive out demons. As we listen to today's readings, let us consider how we are called by God to give witness to the gospel.

STEWARDSHIP: Today's readings are about being chosen and sent. The prophet Amos was chosen by the Lord and sent to use his talents for the people of God. For what have we been chosen? How are we using our talents to serve the people of God?

A REMINDER: Please welcome Father Clyde Grogan as celebrant for the Masses this weekend in both parishes. I will be attending the Illinois State Council Knights of Columbus Mid-Summer meeting in Springfield.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: Can I recall a time when I was provided what I needed to bring God's blessings to others? Can I trust in God whenever I feel inadequate to the task?

God bless.

Fr. Chuck

Vocation Corner: "As an adolescent, I was fortunate enough to meet our order's founder, Mother Martha Maria Ramirez Mora. She helped me see the Word of God as a Living Word, addressed personally to me. I began to regularly read the Good News, pray the rosary, visit the Blessed Sacrament, receive daily Communion and practice acts of service. I give thanks to the Holy Trinity for creating me to be a part of this religious family. I pray for all those who have a religious vocation...."
