Dear Friends,

The Holy Spirit draws us each Sunday to this holy place. We gather together as the body of Christ to celebrate the Eucharist. We pray that we may be made worthy of the call we received in baptism to witness to God's saving power in what we say and what we do. As we hear from the author of Hebrews today, we have been consecrated in the Lord, and in fact have been made the Lord's brothers and sisters. Let us raise our voices in song and prayer as sisters and brothers of our Savior.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Today we travel back in time to when God created humankind. Realizing that the first human needed a suitable partner, God formed a woman out of the man's own body. In the Gospel, Jesus quotes the line that ends the first reading—that husband and wife are formed as one flesh—to speak of this new entity. He follows this lesson by welcoming children, telling the disciples that one must accept the kingdom of God like a child. Listening to scripture today, let us embrace the innocence and wonder of a new being.

STEWARDSHIP: God's first commandment to the world was to take dominion over the earth. As stewards, we are accountable for the care of God's beautiful creation.

A REMINDER: This week the Priests of the Belleville Diocese will meet together with Bishop McGovern for the Annual Convocation. Please keep our gathering in your prayers.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: What can I do to put the needs of those I love, of those who depend on me, above my own needs this week?

God bless.
Fr. Chuck

Vocations Corner – Today's readings underscore the sanctity of marriage. This vocation is a call to live in personal holiness and is a commitment to getting your spouse to heaven.

“God inscribed in the humanity of man and woman the vocation of love and communion. Love is therefore the fundamental and innate vocation of every human being.” – St. John Paul II
