LOVE is patient, LOVE is kind,
LOVE is not jealous. It does not seek its own interests. LOVE never fails.

Dear Friends,

The opening lines of both the first reading and the Gospel are heart-warming and inspiring, but both readings soon turn difficult and serious. Living faithfully to the gospel can be like this. We may leave here enthused and inspired, only to encounter conflict or adversity at home, in our neighborhood, or in the world. Let us pray that the Eucharist may strengthen us for our struggles this week.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: The God who formed Jeremiah in his mother's womb fortified him for his mission. In the Gospel we witness Jesus' strength in overcoming the hostile crowd facing him in his hometown. In between we hear from Saint Paul, who continually faced hostility, rhapsodize on the power of love. Let us nurture love in ourselves and each other and find in it the strength to overcome our hardships.

STEWARDSHIP: From conception, God calls us, invites us to follow Jesus, and to make stewardship a way of life. In our modern world, the demands of faith can be ominous and onerous, as the first reading suggests. But Christian stewards, aware of themselves as co-creators with God and caretakers of all they have and are, develop a profound reverence for the gift of life and its fullness. Christian stewards are asked to become people who have a profound, personal commitment to cooperate with God in their own redemption and in the redemption of others.

A REMINDER: We begin Catholic School's Week on Sunday, January 30. The theme: "Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service." describe how Catholic schools have a specific purpose to form students to be good citizens of the world, love God and neighbor and enrich society with the leaven of the gospel and by example of faith. We are most fortunate to have both a Catholic Grade School (All Saints Academy) and High School (Mater Dei) as choices for our parents to choose a Catholic education for their children.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: Who have I chosen to treat as an outsider, unworthy of my mercy and compassion? How can I change this?

God bless,

Fr. Chuck

Saints Quotes of the Week:

As good children, let us pray often and devoutly for our dear mother, our congregation; so that the Lord may protect Her from all evil and always lead and guide her to everything that is good.
 — St. Catherine Kasper
 “Servite Domino in laetitia.” (Serve the Lord joyfully.)
 — St. John Bosco

Just a Thought...

Sin is like a credit card...enjoy it now and pay for it later!
 It's better to have God approve, than the world applaud.

Vocations Corner - In today's first reading, Jeremiah tells of the Word of the Lord: “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you.” This is everyone's call to live a life of holiness. Are you called? Are you dedicated to a vocation to the priesthood or religious life? Be true to your vocation!
