THEY LEFT EVERYTHING
FOLLOWED HIM
AND BECAME FISHERS OF MEN

Dear Friends,

God calls each of us to greatness. We may not feel worthy of such a calling, but this is natural. We hear in today's readings that Isaiah, Paul, and Simon Peter-giants of our faith-felt unworthy when they were called by the Lord. Jesus calls each of us to discipleship as well. Let us reflect on how we are called to be a disciple and pray for the courage and confidence to follow him.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Isaiah reveals his calling in the first reading, describing a magnificent scene with the Lord surrounded by angels. Because he feels unworthy, one of the angels touches his lips with an ember, purging his sin. When Saul and Simon are called by the Lord they too immediately become aware of their sinfulness. Here in the presence of the Lord, we realize our own sinfulness and limitations. Let us also realize that the Lord still calls us to be disciples.

STEWARDSHIP: All gifts are given to us by the God Who makes all things new. We are called to be good stewards of all God has given us -- family, time, wealth, energy, life. Disciples who practice Stewardship recognize God as the Origin of life, the Giver of freedom, the Source of all they have and are and will be. Stewards know themselves to be recipients and caretakers of God's many gifts. They are grateful for what they have received and eager to cultivate their gifts out of love for God and one another.

A REMINDER: The first step in receiving forgiveness is to acknowledge one's own sinfulness. In the Lord's presence, awareness of one's own sinfulness can be overwhelming. When seeing the LORD, Isaiah at once realized he was unclean, crying, "Woe is me" (Isaiah 6:5). Peter fell to his knees before Jesus, baldly admitting, "I am a sinful man" (Luke 5:8). Paul calls himself, "the least of the apostles ... because I persecuted the church of God" (1 Corinthians 15:9). Before any of them respond to God's call, they confess their need for forgiveness. In doing so, they receive healing and reconciliation.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: When have I felt frightened or foolish by doing something I felt called to do? How has God reassured me and given me confidence?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Good, Better, Best. Never let it rest, Until your good is better and your better is best. — St. Jerome

Vocations Corner - We should consider this as a day to say “THANK YOU” to those who serve us in our daily living which certainly includes our religious life. World Day for Consecrated Life is observed February 2nd, Candlemas Day. It is celebrated in our Parishes this weekend. Let us make it a point to begin saying “THANK YOU” to our Sisters and Brothers who have made sacrifices for us by accepting God’s call (as illustrated in today’s Gospel of the calling of the apostles). Let them know how important they are in the life of your church and how they help you to honor and pray to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Just a Thought...

How would you like your after life, smoking or non-smoking?

If we’re not hungry for Christ, we’re probably too full of ourselves.
