Dear Friends,

He is risen! The dramatic action of the Triduum climaxes today with the first reports of the miraculous news. He is not dead! He has been raised! Our Savior has conquered death and been raised to new life. Since we are all baptized into his death, we are all raised to new life in him. God's love and mercy has been poured out on us all, for us all, so that we may live, as Paul wrote, "in newness of life." In that newness of life, we come together to celebrate at this most glorious feast, singing of our joy and thanksgiving. Alleluia!

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: On this holy morning we hear Saints Peter and Paul testify to Jesus' resurrection and what it means to all of us who have been baptized in him. We also hear Saint John's account of that first Easter morning and the reactions of three disciples whom Jesus loved. None of them fully understood what had happened, but they all realized that something unusual had taken place. The world has changed and all our lives along with it. Christ has triumphed over death; let us rejoice and be glad.

STEWARDSHIP: As Christians we celebrate God's gift of life for us. We are called to open our hearts, to take responsibility for our God-given gifts, and to share the joy of life with others. Then we will experience a new way of life ... Stewardship.

A REMINDER: The incredulous joy of the disciples and followers of Jesus was their experience of Him following His Resurrection. He who died is now Alive and the promise of Eternal Life is given to all who believe in Him. May all the parishioners of our two parishes and their loved ones be filled with Easter Blessings and Peace.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: Have I heard the reassuring voice of the Lord? While I listen for his voice, how do I witness to the difference the Risen Lord makes in my life?

God bless,

Fr. Chuck

Catholic Home Mission Appeal

Next week we will collect the Catholic Home Missions Appeal, which generously supports ministries and programs of our Belleville Diocese each year. Today, over 40% of dioceses in the United States and it's territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them to meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Vocations Corner - Hallelujah!! He is Risen! All our souls have been redeemed. What a wonderful legacy! We need to share this Redemption story with others – our Calling as Catholics. This is what we commemorate through each celebration of the Eucharist which allows us to receive our Lord in Holy Communion. We need to witness to this fact through our daily lives – talking with our classmates, taking care of our spouses and children, engaging with our friends and family, with our co-workers – in all we do! This is our vocation - a Call to Holiness.

A thought: Father Stu is a movie based on a true story, Father Stu is an unflinchingly honest, funny and ultimately uplifting drama about a lost soul who finds his purpose in a most unexpected place. When an injury ends his amateur boxing career, Stuart Long (Mark Wahlberg) moves to L.A. dreaming of stardom. While scraping by as a supermarket clerk, he meets Carmen (Teresa Ruiz), a Catholic Sunday school teacher who seems immune to his bad-boy charm. Determined to win her over, the longtime agnostic starts going to church to impress her. But surviving a terrible motorcycle accident leaves him wondering if he can use his second chance to help others find their way, leading to the surprising realization that he is meant to be a Catholic priest. Despite a devastating health crisis and the skepticism of Church officials and his estranged parents (Mel Gibson and Jacki Weaver), Stu pursues his vocation with courage and compassion, inspiring not only those closest to him but countless others along the way.

Written for the Screen and Directed by: Rosalind Ross.

Warning: Father Stu is rated R for Language throughout.

Has God spoken to you about a vocation to the priesthood or religious life? Pray you can answer the call!

Father Stu is in theaters starting Wednesday, April 13.

Local Theaters showing the film are Marcus Wehrenberg O'Fallon 15 Cine & AMC Edwardsville 12.
