Dear Friends,

Our readings today are truly frightening, for they look ahead to the end of the world and the second coming of our Lord. Everything that the human race has achieved will come crashing down. Natural disasters and violent conflicts will erupt. The faithful will be persecuted but will be vindicated in the end. While evildoers will be punished in the last days, the faithful will not be harmed. May this give us confidence as we look forward to an uncertain future.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: The prophet Malachi sets the tone for today's readings with his warning that one day the LORD will destroy all evildoers. Paul addresses the problem that some people, anticipating the end of the world, have stopped working and have become a burden. Jesus speaks of the persecution that awaits. But all three also give hope to those who are faithful, assuring them that they will not be harmed. As we listen to today's readings, let us consider how we can work to increase the number of those who will receive the Son's healing rays.

STEWARDSHIP: Paul set an example of ministry for the Thessalonians; Mary most perfectly teaches the meaning of discipleship and stewardship. All of their essential elements are found in her life: she was called and gifted by God; she responded generously, creatively, and prudently; she understood her divinely assigned role as "handmaid" in terms of service and fidelity. Now is the time to examine what example of stewardship we set.

A REMINDER: On Sunday we welcome the members of the Breese Knights of Columbus Council 2869 as they remember their deceased Brother Knights from this past Fraternal Year. May they rest in the peace of Christ.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: Can I take the urgency of not knowing when the end times will come for me or for the world and channel it to do something good? What practical thing can I do this week to help carry out Jesus' mission?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Vocations Corner:

"Discovering vocation does not mean scrambling toward some prize just beyond my reach but accepting the treasure of true self I already possess. Vocation does not come from a voice out there calling me to be something I am not. It comes from a voice in here calling me to be the person I was born to be, to fulfill the original selfhood given me at birth by God."

– Thomas Merton
