Dear Friends,

We gather each Sunday to give praise and thanks to God, to greet the Lord in each other, to hear the Lord through God's word, and to receive the Lord in the Eucharist. We humbly ask God for forgiveness and for the grace to forgive our neighbor and ourselves for the wrongs we do to each other, trusting that the Lord looks with favor on the humble and merciful.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Ordinary Time gives us the opportunity to focus on the ordinary aspects of our faith and realize their continuity through history. Take the value of humility. Centuries before Jesus, Zephaniah told the people of Judah to seek humility. In the early years of Christianity, Paul explained that God chose the lowly to show that the arrogant are nothing before God. Finally, we hear Jesus teach his disciples that the meek and lowly will inherit the land. Now—two thousand years later—may God's word call us to humility as well.

STEWARDSHIP: The Beatitudes and the rest of the Sermon on the Mount prescribe the lifestyle of a Christian disciple. St. Paul reminds us that God chose those whom the world considers absurd ... so that mankind can do no boasting before God. Being Christian disciple is a rewarding way of life, a way of companionship with Jesus, and the practice of stewardship as part of it is itself a source of deep joy. Those who live this way are happy people who have found the meaning and purpose of living.

A REMINDER: We begin Catholic Schools Week this weekend. Let us be grateful for the two Catholic Schools which serve our community and the dedication of the administration, faculty and staff that serve our students. This year's theme is: "Faith, Excellence, Service".

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: For whom do I find it difficult to have empathy? How can I strengthen my empathy toward those who are not like me?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Saint Quotes:

"Knowing God without knowing our wretchedness leads to pride. Knowing our wretchedness without knowing God leads to despair. Knowing Christ gives the balance."
~St. Blaise~

"If we want to have a good society, we must concentrate all our forces on the Christian education of the young. Experience has taught me that if we wish to sustain civil society, then we should take good care of the young."
~St. John Bosco~

"When I went to work, I felt the presence of God in me."
~St. Katharina Kasper~

Vocations Corner:

"Though I was raised in a Catholic family and blessed with good priests throughout my life, the priesthood did not attract me when I was young. In fact, during college, I didn't even practice the faith. The Lord eventually led me back to the Church, and when he began to call me to the priesthood, I was both terrified and excited. He was asking me to sacrifice my will and to trust and follow him. This meant breaking up with the girl I was dating and placing my desires for fatherhood and family into his hands. Had I been called when I was younger, I wouldn't have been mature enough in my faith to answer with the generosity and trust that let me to the priesthood."
