

The LORD has delivered his people. They departed in tears but I will console them and guide them. I will lead them to brooks of water, on a level road, so that they will not stumble.

Dear Friends,

This week will feature two parades of sorts. On All Hallows Eve, we'll see a parade of children dressed in costumes going from door to door. On All Saints Day, we sing of a parade of saints who "go marching in." In today's first reading, another parade: "the remnant of Israel" whom the LORD gathers from all over the world. As we celebrate Mass today, let us praise a God who gathers us together, ready to march to our promised land, to the eternal kingdom.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Jeremiah delivers an oracle of salvation, giving his people hope that there would be an end to their exile. Hebrews points out that God called every high priest for generations, but since he was God's Son, Christ became high priest forever. Glory and wonder culminate in the Gospel, where the blind man Bartimaeus is healed by Jesus and immediately follows him on his way to Jerusalem and the cross. Wherever we are on our personal journey, may we heed the Lord's call and follow him, like the faithful in the final verse of the psalm, who "come back rejoicing, carrying their sheaves."

STEWARDSHIP: The Preparation of the Gifts is a significant part of the Eucharistic celebration. When we bring to the altar the bread and wine, along with the good works and services we have performed and our contribution of treasure, we are in communion with all of our brothers and sisters, offering our God-given gifts.

A REMINDER: This Sunday we remember the parishioners who have gone to their Eternal Rest from our two parishes: with nine from St. Augustine at the 8am Mass and with nine from St. Anthony at the 9:30am Mass. May they rest in the peace of Christ and may their memories be a blessing for their families. Our Mass are Friday 8am at St. Augustine and 7pm at St. Anthony. Please see the Partnership schedule for all the Holyday of Obligation of All Saints Masses.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: What will I do this week to discern the way for me? What else do I want to see?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck
