

Hear, O Israel!
The LORD our GOD is one!

You shall LOVE the LORD
with all your heart
with all your soul
with all your mind
and with all your strength and you shall LOVE your NEIGHBOR
as yourself

There is no commandment greater than these.

Thanksgiving Mass & Service Schedule

Tuesday, November 26 at 7:00pm - Partnership Thanksgiving Service (St. Anthony)

Wednesday, November 27 at 7:00pm - Thanksgiving Vigil Mass (St. Augustine)

Thursday, November 28 at 9:00am - Thanksgiving Mass (St. Anthony)

Dear Friends,

In this month of November, we Catholics remember in a special way all those who have died. We pray for and to our loved ones who have passed away, secure in the hope that they are, in the words from today's Gospel, "not far from the kingdom of God." Jesus teaches us today that loving God with all our being and loving our neighbor as ourselves will put us on the road to eternal life. Let us take that to heart as we thank and praise God for the promise of heaven.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: Having just given the people the ten commandments, Moses extols them as a blessing, a way to grow and prosper and eventually reach the promised land. There they can declare their love for the Lord, as we do in the responsorial psalm. After hearing Hebrews praise Jesus as a high priest who has been made perfect forever, we hear him reveal the greatest commandment, which directs our love on two paths, toward God and toward neighbor. Listening to God's word, let us note the wonderful consequences of taking God's commands to heart.

STEWARDSHIP: The life of a Christian steward models the life of Jesus. It is challenging and even difficult, in many respects, yet intense joy comes to those who take the risk to live as Christian stewards. We demonstrate our love for God by our love for our neighbor. Stewardship calls us to serve one another through love ... bearing one another's burdens and therefore fulfilling Jesus' commandment.

A REMINDER: Those whom we have known and loved, family and friends, who are now parted from our midst and who peacefully now rest in the Lord, are particularly remembered during November. And as the green foliage of Summer passes into the Autumn colors before the death of Winter – we know there is a Springtime of rebirth that lies ahead. Such is our belief and faith in the Resurrection. We know that our death will not be the end, but rather the beginning of a "new life" with the Lord.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How do I show my love for God and my love for neighbor? When have I felt myself giving that love with all my being?

God bless,
Fr. Chuck

Vocations Spot light: This Sunday starts National Vocations Awareness Week. National Vocation Awareness Week (NVAW) is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these vocations. Please pray each day this week for an increase of vocations and for young people to hear their call to Holiness.

Pro-Life Corner: "Palliative care and hospice are precious and crucial instruments in the care of patients with serious and complex chronic or terminal illnesses, and they help provide comfort to both the patients and their families. While palliative care cannot entirely eradicate suffering from people's lives, it provides an authentic expression of human and Christian care – allowing us to 'remain' at the side of a suffering person, as the Blessed Mother and the beloved disciple remained at the foot of the Cross...The path of accompaniment until the moment of death must remain open, with appropriate care for body and soul customized to the personal needs of the patient." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "The Witness of the Good Samaritan: Palliative Care and Hospice"
