Dear Friends,

How appropriate it is to celebrate Mother's Day and Good Shepherd Sunday on the same day! Many of us are fortunate to have mothers who have cared for us, comforted us, and protected us, much as shepherds do for their flocks. A mother's love is an example of the Good Shepherd's love for each of us. Let us give thanks for all those who have mothered us and shepherded us throughout our lives.

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE LESSON: On Good Shepherd Sunday, we first hear Saints Paul and Barnabas shepherd both Jews and Gentiles who chose to join the early church, urging them to remain faithful to the grace of God. In the psalm, we proclaim that we too are sheep of the Lord's flock. In a vision, John sees the Lamb of God shepherding a great multitude to springs of life-giving water. Finally, Jesus tells us in the Gospel that he gives all his sheep eternal life and no one can take that away. May listening to God's word increase our faith in our Good Shepherd.

STEWARDSHIP: Jesus calls us, as his disciples, to a new way of life: the Christian way of life--of which stewardship is part. He does not call us as nameless people in a faceless crowd. He calls us individually by name. Each one of us -- clergy, religious, lay person; married, single; adult, child has a personal vocation. God intends each one of us to play a unique role in carrying out the divine plan. The challenge, then, is to understand our role--our vocation and to respond generously to this call from God. Christian vocation entails the practice of stewardship. In addition, Christ calls each of us to be stewards of our personal vocations, which we receive from God.

A REMINDER: On this Mother's Day weekend we ask God's blessings upon all Mothers and through the intercession of Mary, our Spiritual Mother, that they may always know our appreciation and gratitude for the gift of life which they gave us.

A QUESTION FOR THE WEEK: How has my mother (or mother figure) been a good shepherd for me? Make sure to thank her today.

God bless,

Fr. Chuck

Vocations Spotlight: We celebrate and congratulate all our Mothers today in their acceptance of one of the greatest vocations there is - Motherhood. Blessings on them all for all their sacrifices and their love. Today is also World Day of Prayer for Vocations. The purpose of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), to the Religious life in all its forms (male and female, contemplative and apostolic), to societies of apostolic life, to secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life, in the particular sense of mission "ad gentes". (From the USCCB website)

Pro-Life Corner:

"Radical solidarity compels us to come alongside vulnerable mothers in profound friendship, compassion, and support for both them and their preborn children. It requires us to address the fundamental challenges that lead an expectant mother to believe she is unable to welcome the child God has entrusted to her. We must do all we can to provide mothers, children, and families with the support they need to flourish. This cannot be accomplished by laws or policy alone, but requires the continual transformation of our own hearts, recognizing in every person the face of Christ, and placing their needs before our own."
USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, "Radical Solidarity"
